FAREWELL BENEFIT OF MISS BENNETT. Miss Julia Bennert, the accomplished commediene, takes her farewell benefit at the Ade phi tomorrow night, when Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" is to be played. We look forward with great expectations to the production of this beautiful Shakerperian play, and can well fancy how delightfully Miss Beautry will read the poetical language of her author. Size will look the part admirably, also play it to perfection, or we are much mistaken. Miss BENNETT has our cordial good wishes for her success wherever she goes, and during her coming engageof our brethren of the press there, who will, withsecure the success of professional talents like hers.

DERFUL CURES IN THE ANNALS of medical history.

Mr. H. G. Farrell—Dear Sor. Actuated by a sense of grafe-fulness, I submit the following as an instance of the utility of yor regreat medicines. My child, three years old, was saddenly attacked with a terrible disease, which in less than six hours prostrated it to total helpiessness. The timbs became soriged that not a joint could be bent the fiesh immed black and cold and entirely deprived of techniq, the eves fixed, partially closed and altegether blind, following this was deafness to all sounds, the spine became continued and so curved that when lying on its back the head and heels only touched. Indeed, the child presented every appearance of being dead. Immediately on the attack, the family physician was called in, and for three weeks he labored to restore it to feeling, but all in vain, although it was blistered a drawn times and various rubefacient hierinents applied.—A consultation of physicians was then held, but to no porpose, the case was then brought before the feeding Scriety, but nothing could be suggressed which had not already been done, and the doctor flien told me he could do mothing noire. We then commenced applying your Liniment freely over done, and the doctor fine tool he he come as making more. We then commenced applying your Limineat freely over the entire length of the spine, and you may imagine a parent a joy, when, offer a few applications, returning animation was apparent, and it rapidly recovered with the exception of the sight, which did not become perfect for near a month. The child is now healthy and robust as can be.— Five other cases of the same kind occurred previously in my neighborhood, all of which died, when there is no doubt if your Liniment had been used they would have recovered Peoria, March 1st, 1851.

A HARD LUMP ON A HORSE'S BREAST.

Mr. II. G. Farrelli --I have used your Arabian Liniment with grafification in several cases, the most remarkable of which was a large lump that appeared on my horse's breast. It was very hand, appearing to be hard griste. It remained for nearly a year, when I applied your Liniment, one bottle of which eatirely cured it. I can recommend it as the best 10 HN CRAWE. INVIGORATING CORDIAL, a shoromenon in Medicine. Health Restored and Life Lengthened, by DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIS OR CORDIAL. DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR CORDIAL.

For centuries, Modical searches has been ransacting the vegetable and minoral kingdoms, in central of something that should resort the lost of decaying energies of the nervous and muscular systems, without the drawback of subsequent prostration, which all simulants, tonies, and agreetes had heretofore entailed. That something has been found. It is a vegetable production, brought from this startle deserts of Arab a the Samy, by the celebrated Professor M. Morse, well known as a distinguished member of the tending scientific societies of the Out World, and equally distinguished as a physician, a chemist, and a invader. The futures of this barb, contentrated and combined with other engetables mediated extracts, are now producing results haretofore unheard of, in this or any other country. At first the properties affributed to Prof. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ed.INIR OR CORDIAL were decimed fabulous. The public often deceived ted to rec. MORSE'S INVISION. The public office deceived could not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer. But face, indontable locks attested by witnesses of the highest closes and character, are now incompling over all doubts. INCREDULITY IS OVERTHROWN, by a mass of tostimony which is perfectly irresistable.

The Sinkin remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a mississ of abuse of the various organs which make up the wonderful machine called man. It restorates full vigor every deflects function connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, recrease; to the re-product on efforcing the matter and mind, recrease; to the re-product on efforcing the function connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, recrease; to the re-product on efforcing the forces of feeble machines, product on efforcing that energy which is necessary to the proper copyment or all the natural appelities, as well as the biguer mental arributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either set or to any age. The feeble girl, the aissing wife, the takines, ernevated jouth, the over worn man of business, the veitin of nervous copression, the individual sufficient from general dobility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permindent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator.—To those who have a predisposition to paralysist will prove a complete and unfailing sateguard against that terrible mainally. There are many, pechaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of ancioning. Leanot even these despit. Rebuild the Broken Constitution.

The derangements of the system, leading to nervous discases, and the forms of nervous discase itself, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maindies for which this preparation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, via: neuralgia, the delareaux, headache, incipient paralysis, bysteria, paigitation of the beart, spinal affectious, muscular deadity, tremors, flatuience, a pricking seasation in the flesh sumbness, torpolity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, ledisposition to move, faintings affections, weakness of the will, ledisposition to move, faintings affections, broken sleep and terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place or position, weakness of the programic organe, sexual incompatency, manonania, if for albus, staking at the stomach, female irregularities, a chronic tendency to missenringe, emachation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgance of the passions, and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the diseased, debilinted and shattered nervous system, whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and refused organization is atonce braced re-vivided and built up. The mental and physical symtoms of mervous disease vanish toguiner under its influence. Nor is the effect temporary; on the contrary, the relied is permanent, for the conduit properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself, and restors it to its formal condition.—Well may the preparation be called the Well may the preparation be called the Wonder. of the mincteenth century. But the Elixir is an exhiberant without a single drawback—safe in its operation, perpetual in its happy influence upon the nerves, the mind, and the entire organization; it will also remove depressions, excitement, a tendency to block, sleeplessness, distilts of society, incapacity for study or besiness. Persons of Pale Complexion, or consumptive liabits, are restored by the use of a boulls or two to bloom and vigor changing the skin from a pale, yellow, slockly color, to a besulf at nord complexion.

To the Misguaded,
These are some of the an and mathembry off ets produced by early liabits of youth, viz. weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of magualar power, papilitation of the leart, dispepais, nervous tritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of nonsumption, e.c.

Mentally, the learful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of incomer, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, well fore-bodings, aversion in society, self distrust, love of soil tude-timidity, dec., are some of the evils produced.

Before Contemplating Murriage.

Before Contemplating Marriage. should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote communiat happiness; indeed, without those, the Joursey through life becomes a weary pligrimage, the prospect hearty darkins the view; the mind becomes the joint owed with despuir, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of smother becomes blighted with the rown.

Parents and Guardians. Parents and Countaines.

Are often misled with respect to the causes and sources of discares in their sons and wards. How often do they ascribe to other causes of wasting of the frame, idiocy, madness, patention of the heart, indigestion, derangement of the nervous system, cough and symptoms indicating consumption, when the truth is, that they have been judging in a pernicious though alloring practice, destructive both to mind and body.
